

Key knowledge

- A habitat is a place where a plant or animal lives.
- A habitat provides plants / animals with food, water and shelter.

- People are causing harm to many habitats.
- We must respect and look after our environment to save animal and plant habitats.

deforestation

environment

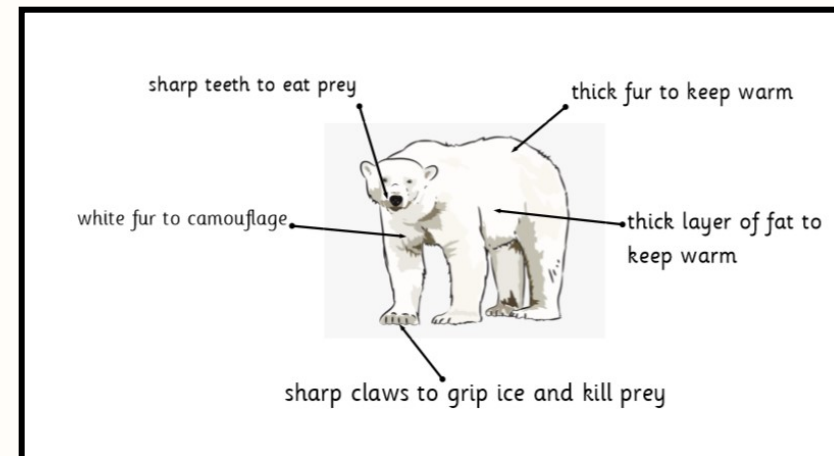

pollution

habitats

- Logs, leaves, tree trunks, grass and piles of twigs are all types of microhabitat.

- A microhabitat is a small habitat within a larger habitat.

- Animals have special features to be able to live in their habitats.